

Jesus tells about the unmerciful servant. Matthew 18:21-35

This week your child learned about a servant whose master forgave his debt. Then the servant turned around and refused to forgive someone else's debt. Remind your child that God is loving, so we forgive others.

Talk About It:

When is it hardest to forgive someone? Why do you think it's hard in that situation? How does God's love help us forgive others?
