God Made Many Things

Genesis 1–2: Creation

Long ago there was no world.

There was no sun.

There was no moon.

God said, “I will make the world.”
So God made the earth.

God said, “I will make the sun and stars.”

He said, “They are good.”

God made many things.

He made the trees.

He made the fish in the sea.

He made big animals and little animals.

Last of all,
God made a man and a woman.
The man and woman were happy in God's world.

Something Bad, Something Sad

Genesis 3: Adam and Eve's Temptation

Adam was Eve's husband.

Eve was Adam's wife.

They had a home and food in the garden.

They had many good things.

They were never sad.

But there was one thing
they could not have.
God said, “Do not eat
the fruit on that tree.”

Adam and Eve did not eat from it.
Then one day a snake talked to Eve.
He said, “This fruit is good.
You should eat some.”

Eve knew God would not be happy.

But the fruit looked good.

So Eve ate some.

She gave a piece to Adam.

Adam ate some too.

God was sad they ate the fruit.
Adam and Eve were sad too.
God said, “It is time for you to leave the garden.”
